OFFICE NOTE.

Mr. A. Ramakrishna Iyengar's representation re: Veterinary Dispensary at Anandapuram.

1 Mr. A. Ramakrishna Iyengar has given a donation of Rs.1,000/- towards the non-recurring and initial expenses of a Veterinary Dispensary to be built at Anandapuram. The Shimoga District Board have signified their willingness to contribute Rs.100/- per annum towards recurring charges and to hand over one of their buildings for locating the dispensary. The Village Panchayet of Anandapuram are prepared to pay Rs.50/- per annum towards recurring charges. Taking into account Mr. Ramakrishna Iyengar's donation and the annual contributions of the District Board and the Village Panchayet, the Government share of the cost of a veterinary dispensary at Anandapuram is calculated to amount to Rs.1,710/- per annum.

2 During the Dewan's tour in the Shimoga District in April last, the need for a veterinary dispensary at Anandapuram was strongly urged by the local people, and the Dewan was pleased to tell them that the matter would be examined again.

3 Later, the Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga, strongly supported the proposal for starting the dispensary. He stated that it would serve the needs of Anandapuram and of the other villages of the Sagar and Nagar taluks round about.

4 But the Director of Agriculture thought that veterinary dispensaries were multiplying too fast and that besides there was no provision in the current year's budget for more than three

1° I am not in favor of opening more than one Veterinary dispensary in a Taluk. As cattle cannot be transported over long distances the attendance per day even at the Taluk headquarter dispensaries is barely fifteen. The services of the Veterinarian are useful more in case of epidemics and for this purpose one Veterinary Inspector per Taluk is quite ample. In Madras they are not multiplying Veterinary dispensaries as we do here. in some cases ~~often~~ more than one per taluk.

1) The D's arguments cuts both ways. No people will use hospitals & work centres, if timely points are the need for more dispensaries. The possibility of having a dispensary at Amandapuram & the Taluk Staff attending there twice or thrice a week may perhaps be thought of. There will soon be both Rly & Road communications & the work can perhaps be managed satisfactorily. Private benefactions require to be encouraged & stimulated.
